

Prayer

Unraveled-Rewoven is a trilogy inspired by true events. I understand the accounts are challenging, having your eyes open to the darkness. Nevertheless, as you turn the pages, my desire and prayers are that you will find the truth, hope, and healing, as Catherine found through her faith and trust in Jesus Christ.

I am supplying a prayer for those who desire to invite the Lord into their lives.

Dear, Father God,

I realize I have made many mistakes, knowingly and unknowingly. I admit my sins brought death and destruction into my life and into my relationship with you, Lord, as well as with others. I do not have the answers on how to change my heart or my path in life. But, I believe you do and that you are the answer.

Your word says in John 3:16 that you loved the world so much that you gave your son, Jesus Christ, to pay for our sins and that whoever believes in him would not perish but that you, Lord, would give them eternal life. As best as I can, I now place my trust in you. I am grateful that you have promised to receive me despite my many sins and failures. Father, I take you at your word.

Lord, I confess I have sinned and need your forgiveness. I believe you sent your Son, Jesus Christ, to die in my place, paying the penalty for my wrongdoings. I believe he died on a cross and rose from the dead. I ask you to please fill my emptiness with the Holy Spirit and make me whole. Teach me your ways and show me how to have an intimate and growing relationship with you. Thank you for all you have done. I surrender my life to you. Thank you for hearing this prayer. In Jesus' name. Amen.
